

Extension of validation of national entry visas until 30.9.2020

We hereby notify that, according to article 47 of the Act of Legislative Content of 13 April 2020 (A' 84) the validity of national entry visas which were granted to third-country nationals in accordance to Law 4251/2014 (A' 80) and which expired after 11 March 2020 or shall expire by 31 August 2020, is extended until 30 September 2020. During the validity period of the ex officio extension, third-country nationals shall be entitled in full to the set of rights and obligations deriving from the relevant entry visa that they are already holders of. In case the third-country national and holder of a national entry visa leaves the Greek territory during the period of the ex officio extension provided for in this document, the national entry visa shall ex officio cease to be valid starting from the date of exit from the Greek territory.
